the rebels and confiscate tremendously. Time passed on, and it was discovered that the I'resident was going to be rigid on the wrong side a little bit. He had some faint conception that to kill and drive off all the people in a country was not the best way in the world to govern it profitably; so his manifestoes were modiications of radicalism. He has to take the consequence. The Radicals are con- jeet for this born toudy. ciuding that that aet of Providence in removing Mr. Lincoln was an error, and Johnson and Providence have to bear their censures accordingly. The Radical leaders are growing Jacksonian a little themselves. They are dealing with the President and his policy without gioves. For a man to do the Jackson against their enemies or opponents is highly praiseworthy, but any of that quality exercised in a different way is a high misdemeanor. The fight just now is a very pretty one as It stands, and it wili greatly improve on the meeting of Congress. The Murder at Boyd's Mill. Confession of Berhard Marshall. Wreck of the Steamer Lone Star. Boat and Cargo a Total Loss.

English Steamer in Pursuit of the Shenendoah. NEW YORK, Sept. 24, Another great Fenlan demonstration is iverfised for Wednesday evening next, the Cooper Institute, Delegations the Cooper Institute. Delegations on the neighboring cities will be in at-rom the neighboring cross sendance, on Monday a convention of all the sodicties belonging to the Workingmens'.

Zuion in the State will be held at Albany to consider the following questions:
lie ubbreviation of the hours' of lubor, exclusion of convicts from employment to the detriment of honest mechanics, and he regulations and laws of apprenticehim. These innestions have been long hip. These questions have been long and well discussed before, but this last and well discussed before, but this as-comparatively new respiration dimplains that the graduales of Sing Sing are per-mitted to compete with respectable per-sons of the laboring classes, and that owing to the inefficient system of appren-tiveship good workmen in every branch of the inechanical arts are growing less.

Prittsucine, Sept. 24. The Boyd's Hill marder mystery was partially cleared up to dey by voluntary confession by Real Real Marshall, u terman, who states that in August last he and another German, named August Frick, met, in New York, a German emigrant, whose unme they did hol learn, a moulder by trade, who came to l'ittsrrg on an emigrant train. While on the ad out Marshall and Frick, believing e stranger was posessed of a large mount of money, conceived an idea of nurdering him, which was accomplished nurdering him, which was accomplished on their arrival by inducing the stranger to visit Boyd's Hill, where Marshall ived. The condict was short and decisive, Frick stabbing him three times while Marshall struck him, simultaneously, on he head with an iron bar. Frick has also made a velontary statement, in which he irnes to throw discredit a a part of Marshall's statement, for the repose of exempating himself.

The confession created intense excitenent threlighout the city, and crowds of itlzens ubstructed the streets on the New York, Sept. 24. A Panama letter of the 7th says as soon s the dispatch reached Acapulco, giving he news of the destruction of an Ameri-an whaler by the Shenandoah, the com-number of the English war steamer De-vastater, lying in the harbor, sought an interview with Capt. Scott, of the United States steamer Saranac, and informed him that he should sail immediately with the Devastater in pursuit of the Shenandoah and treat the rebel cruizer us a pirate and pture her wherever she might be found, e was as good as his word, and left, port on as his ship could be got under
